This year Cherry Hill Seminary continued to offer quality education and resources both to our students and to the Pagan community at large.

We deeply appreciate the many hours our volunteer staff gives each day to serving our students and faculty.

We are also grateful for the leadership of our Board of Directors, led by President Jeffrey Albaugh.

In addition to 2014's 27 courses (total student registrations of 104) and summer intensive conference, here are some of our other activities.
