

Cherry Hill Seminary

2018 Annual Report

Board of Directors

Tom Gordon
Jeffrey Keefer
Willow Oringderff
Ron Schaefer

This year Cherry Hill Seminary continued to offer quality education and resources both to our students and to the Pagan community at large.

We deeply appreciate the many hours our volunteer staff gives each day to serving our students and faculty.

We are also grateful for the leadership of our Board of Directors, led by President Willow Oringderff.

Administration

Holli S. Emore
Executive Director

In addition to 2018's outstanding students in 16 courses and summer intensive conference in Atlanta, here are some of our other activities.

Selina Rifkin
Executive Assistant to Director

2018 Accomplishments

Candace Kant, Ph.D.
Academic Dean

Held private Pagan Consent Culture classes for leadership of ADF and other groups.

David Oringderff, Ph.D.
Pastoral Counseling & Chaplaincy

Published The Greening of Religion, papers from the symposium of the same name in 2016, a collaboration of CHS and University of South Carolina.

Deirdre Sommerlad-Rogers, Ph.D.
Ministry, Advocacy & Leadership

Held graduation at Mystic South to awarded Master of Divinity to Holli Emore.

Christina Beard-Moose, Ph.D.
Theology & Religious History

Honored newly-retired Wendy Griffin as Academic Dean Emerita.

Welcomed new Academic Dean, Candace Kant, Ph.D. to her position after many years as faculty.

Honored longtime faculty Michael York as Professor Emeritus.

Welcomed new chairs Christina Beard-Moose (TRH) and Deirdre Sommerlad-Rogers (MAL). Our departments rotate chairs from time to time among members of the department, and we appreciate this generous gift of their time and talent.
